

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 01/04/2026

Last Updated: 01/04/2026

JRST TECHNOLOGY (“JRST,” “we,” “our,” or “us”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you share with us through our website. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, disclose, and protect information submitted through our website and related communication channels.

By accessing or using this website, or by submitting your information through any form, email, or inquiry channel on the website, you agree to the collection and use of your information in accordance with this Privacy Policy, subject to applicable law.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect personal and business-related information that you voluntarily provide to us when you use the website, contact us, or submit an inquiry. This may include your name, company name, designation, email address, phone number, country, industry segment, requirement type, project stage, and any other information you choose to share with us.

We may also collect certain technical information automatically when you visit the website, such as your IP address, browser type, device information, operating system, referring URLs, pages visited, date and time of access, and similar website usage information. If cookies, analytics tools, or similar technologies are used on the website, related information may also be collected.

JRST does not intentionally collect sensitive personal information unless it is specifically required for a legitimate business purpose and voluntarily provided by you.

2. How We Use Information

We may use the information we collect for legitimate business and operational purposes, including:

- To respond to inquiries, requests, and communications submitted through the website.
- To understand your project requirements and provide relevant business proposals, quotations, product or service information, or consultation support.

- To improve our website, services, content, and user experience.
- To maintain internal records, business communications, and operational administration.
- To comply with applicable legal, regulatory, security, or contractual obligations.

We process personal information only for purposes that are reasonably connected to our business activities and the purpose for which the information was provided.

3. Cookies and Analytics

Our website may use cookies, similar technologies, or third-party analytics services to understand website traffic, improve functionality, analyze visitor behavior, and enhance user experience. These tools may collect information such as browser type, pages visited, time spent on pages, and referral sources.

You may be able to manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. However, disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality or performance of some parts of the website.

If you use Google Analytics, Meta Pixel, reCAPTCHA, embedded forms, chat widgets, or similar tools on the website, those should be treated as part of this section and reflected accurately in your live implementation.

4. Disclosure and Sharing of Information

JRST may share information with its internal teams, affiliates, consultants, advisors, service providers, or technology partners strictly on a need-to-know basis for purposes consistent with this Privacy Policy.

We may also disclose information where required to do so by law, regulation, legal process, governmental request, or to protect our rights, safety, security, systems, property, or business interests.

JRST does not sell personal information submitted through the website to third parties.

5. Data Security

JRST adopts reasonable security practices and procedures to protect personal information from unauthorized access, misuse, alteration, disclosure, or destruction. Indian privacy guidance expects websites to disclose reasonable security practices and procedures adopted for information protection.

While we take commercially reasonable measures to protect information, no method of transmission over the internet or method of electronic storage is completely secure. Accordingly, JRST does not guarantee absolute security of information submitted through the website.

6. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as necessary for the purpose for which it was collected, for legitimate business use, or as required by applicable law, regulation, contractual obligation, or internal record-keeping requirements.

When information is no longer required, we may delete, anonymize, archive, or securely store it in accordance with applicable legal and operational requirements.

7. Third-Party Links

This website may contain links to third-party websites, platforms, or services for your convenience or reference. JRST is not responsible for the privacy practices, content, security, or policies of such third-party websites.

Users are encouraged to review the privacy policies of any third-party websites they visit through links provided on this website.

8. Your Rights and Choices

You may contact JRST to request access to the personal information you have shared with us, seek correction of inaccurate or incomplete information, or raise concerns relating to the handling of your information, subject to applicable law and our verification requirements.

Where applicable, you may also withdraw consent for future communications by contacting us using the details provided below, although such withdrawal will not affect processing already undertaken based on prior consent or other lawful grounds.

9. Children's Privacy

This website is intended for business and professional use. JRST does not knowingly collect personal information from children through this website.

10. Changes to This Privacy Policy

JRST may update or modify this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in legal requirements, business practices, website functionality, or operational needs. Updated versions of this Privacy Policy will be posted on this page with the revised effective date or last updated date.

Your continued use of the website after any changes are posted will constitute acceptance of the updated Privacy Policy, subject to applicable law.

11. Contact Us

If you have any questions, concerns, or requests regarding this Privacy Policy or the handling of your information, you may contact us using the details below. Privacy policies commonly include the organization's email, phone, and postal address so users can reach the business directly.
